

APPEAL TO HOUSEKEEPERS

To Aid in Making the Approaching Fair a Great Success.

To the Housekeepers of Williamsburg County:

Will you not help us to make this a banner year in our department at the county fair? If each of you will exhibit the best you have in our line the success of the Household department will be assured. Right here let me say that a great deal of confusion was caused last year by persons putting in several jars of fruit, preserves, and, as the list calls for only one jar of each article, select your best of each particular kind of fruit, jelly, etc. and the judges will have less trouble in awarding premiums.

You will see from the premium list the various articles classed in this department. Look it over and resolve to enter at least one exhibit and as many more as possible. Of course everyone cannot be a prize winner, but those of us who exhibit the best we have in our particular line contribute quite as much to the success of the fair as those whose exhibits are premium winners, and, after all, a successful fair is our chief aim.

I should be glad, if it were possible, to make a house-to-house canvass of the county, but of course I cannot do this, so I make this appeal to you through our county papers as the best method of reaching you all. I will as superintendent of this department, personally appreciate any effort you may make towards a full and attractive exhibit in everything pertaining to the household. If I can give you any information further than that contained in the premium list I shall be glad to do so.

Cordially yours,
MRS LEROY LEE,
Supt Household Dept.

NO CROPS, NO WORK, NO FOOD.

Sad Plight of People in Valley of Lynch's Creek.

Supervisor McBride brings back a very harrowing tale of the condition of the storm victims in the valley of Lynch's creek. Their farms and supplies were destroyed. They have no means in the world of making any money and are suffering for something to eat. They are living the best they can out of fishing and hunting, but that is poor living. They have no work to do except it be given by the public. The little cotton that was made has all been gathered. The gins are idle and neighbors have nothing to give in work to neighbors, because they are all in the same boat.

They have been hoping that the government would soon have work for them on the roads and drainage that was proposed but has not materialized, and their necessities are great.

Mr Ragsdale had a talk with the government agent here recently and expected that this work would be resumed. In the meantime these people must be taken care of. They are not beggars or paupers, but they are hungry people with nothing to feed themselves on.

Green peas are the staple diet in that section now, but what can take the place of bread?

There are three hundred people in this predicament.—Florence Times.

WITH VICTORY NEAR HE ALMOST GAVE UP FIGHT.

Columbian Now Has Wife to Thank for Urging Him On.

WON AFTER 30 YEARS.

Moral in This Story Perhaps Applies to Many Others—Tells of Long Struggle.

There is a moral in this. It has to deal with a person who came very near giving up too soon. And the story is told by his wife—a story that perhaps is true with regard to many others.

Mrs Mary Gordon, of 720 Seventh St., Olympia, a suburb of Columbia, says Tanlac made a well man of her husband though he had suffered more than 30 years with a severe form of stomach trouble before he began taking it. And the moral in this is: "Don't give up," for she says her husband almost lost heart when the first bottle of Tanlac failed to give him the relief he expected, and it was only because of his wife's urging that he continued to take Tanlac until she says he was a well man when the fourth bottle has taken.

Mrs Gordon's statement in endorsement of Tanlac follows:

"My husband suffered from catarrh of the stomach almost all his life—for more than 30 years—and he had it very badly. He got in such bad shape that almost everything he ate hurt him and nothing seemed to nourish him. He would have sick spells and could not work, and his troubles caused him to lose a lot of time from his work.

"He was in bad shape and could not go anywhere hardly, and he had lost a lot of weight. It was almost impossible for him to sleep well at night, and sleeplessness troubled him a lot. Finally he decided to take Tanlac, for he had read a lot about it and knew several people who had endorsed it.

"He says Tanlac cured him of that stomach trouble. He sleeps well now, and he is in fine shape in every way. The last Tanlac he took was taken two or three months ago, and he never has any trouble with his stomach now and can eat anything he wants and it never hurts him. He says he feels better now than he has in years.

"We spent a lot of money for professional treatment of his trouble, but it seemed that the medicine he was given did not suit his case. But he sure was wonderfully helped by Tanlac, and he told me the other day that he wanted to give a testimonial. We cannot say too much for Tanlac.

"He took four bottles of Tanlac. The first did not help him and he did not want to get any more, but I persuaded him to get the second and it helped him a right smart bit. And the next two bottles broke up his troubles and he is in just fine shape now. I sure can recommend Tanlac, because Tanlac did more for my husband than all the other medicines he ever took and made a well man of him, even though he had suffered with this stomach trouble more than 30 years."

Tanlac, the master medicine, is sold by Kingstree Drug Co., Kingstree; Mallard Lumber Co., Greelyville; R P Hinnant, Suttons.

Charles Luquire Deals Death Without Warning

Greenwood, October 8:—Using three bullets from a 32-calibre pistol, Charley Luquire, a chaingang guard, last night killed three men, including himself, and with two shots probably fatally wounded a fourth. This quadruple tragedy occurred at the county farm about four miles east of town.

The dead are Milton Townsend, manager of the county farm and alms house; Pomp Davis, his father-in-law, and Charley Luquire, the guard who killed these two and then himself.

Tom McCombs, captain of the county gangs, and a brother of Supervisor J B McCombs, was shot twice through the right lung, and though still alive this evening, his condition is regarded as highly precarious and his chances of recovery are very slight.

Charley Luquire, the guard who ran amuck, came to town yesterday to attend the circus. He was told by McCombs to be back at the farm by 5 o'clock. Luquire, it is said, began drinking when he reached town, and was in an ugly mood all the afternoon. He started a row in a pool room and once or twice pulled out his pistol and threatened to "shoot up" somebody, it is stated. He did not leave town until late, reaching the farm a little after 7.

AGED FARMER

Made Strong and Well by Vinol

This letter proves there is nothing but Vinol to create strength for weak, run-down conditions. Vinol Centre, N. Y.—"I am a farmer 74 years of age and got into a weak, run-down condition as a result of the Grippe. Our druggist suggested Vinol to build me up and I noticed an improvement soon after taking it, and it has restored my strength so I can now do a good day's work. My wife has also taken Vinol for a run-down condition with splendid results."
